Giusi Russo, Montgomery County Community College, will publish Women, Empires, and Body Politics at the United Nations, 1946-1975 (University Press of Nebraska Press, 2023). This book is part the series, Expanding Frontiers: Interdisciplinary Studies of Women, Gender, and Sexuality. Professor Russo will be presenting a paper on panel 43, Interrogating the Colonial Imaginary: Depictions of Racial Difference through Western Eyes. (see page 3)

EHS Business Luncheon
12:00-1:30pm
Room: Carroll B

This year's Mathews-Weinberg talk will be given by Amy Froide, University of Maryland Baltimore County. The title of her talk is, "The Charitable Corporation: A Cautionary Tale of Financial Fraud in 18th-century London."

Emily Marker, Rutgers University Camden, published Black France, White Europe: Youth, Race, and Belonging in the Postwar Era (Cornell University Press, 2022).

EHS Reception
Friday, November 11
5:30-7:00pm

This year's EHS reception will not be in Holiday 4 as listed in the program, but rather at Pickle's Pub at 520 Washington Blvd, a one-minute walk from the Hilton. Use the Camden Street exit from the hotel. Pickle's Pub was featured on the Travel Channel show Food Paradise. The pub is famous for it's Crab Pretzel, which is fresh rolled daily and topped with crab dip, covered in cheddar cheese, then baked and finished with Old Bay!

Samuel C. Huneke, George Mason University, his book States of Liberation: Gay Men between Dictatorship and Democracy in Cold War Germany (University of Toronto Press, 2022), will receive this year's Smith Award for best book in European history. Professor Huneke's book will be the focus of the panel 25 roundtable, New Directions in European Histories of Sexuality and Gender (see page 2).
