

PROGRAM

SOUTHERN HISTORICAL ASSOCIATION 64TH ANNUAL MEETING

Headquarters: Sheraton Birmingham Hotel
Birmingham, Alabama
November 11–14, 1998

Wednesday, November 11: 7:30 P.M.

M

1. COMING HOME

PRESIDING: Charles Joyner, Coastal Carolina University

“When Johnny Reb Came Marching Home: A Feminine Perspective”
Margaret Ripley Wolfe, East Tennessee State University

“When Johnny Reb Came Marching Home: A Masculine Perspective”
Bertram Wyatt-Brown, University of Florida

COMMENTS: Carol K. Bleser, Clemson University
Sheldon Meyer, Oxford University Press

Thursday, November 12: 9:30 A.M.–11:30 A.M.

D

2. THE CIVIL WAR IN MEMORY

PRESIDING: James M. McPherson, Princeton University

“America’s Unmasterable Past: Race and Civil War Memory at the Turn of the Century”
David W. Blight, Amherst College

“Shaping Public Memory of the Civil War: Robert E. Lee, Jubal Early, and Douglas Southall Freeman”
Gary W. Gallagher, Pennsylvania State University

“The Creation of the Daughters of the Confederacy”
Cita Cook, State University of West Georgia

COMMENTS: Nina Silber, Boston University

Thursday, November 12: 9:30–11:30 A.M.

E

3. RHETORIC AND RACE IN THE AMERICAN SOUTH

PRESIDING: Vernon Burton, University of Illinois, Urbana-Champaign

"Lynching, Miscegenation, and the Construction of a New Heterosexual Order in the Turn-of-the-Century South"

Lee Ann Whites, University of Missouri

"Messin' White Women: The Rhetoric of Black-on-White Rape in Twentieth-Century Virginia"

Lisa Lindquist Dorr, University of Virginia

"Word and Deed: The Language of Lynching, 1820–1953"

Christopher R. Waldrep, Eastern Illinois University

COMMENTS: Michael Bellesiles, Emory University

Michael W. Fitzgerald, St. Olaf College

Thursday, November 12: 9:30–11:30 A.M.

F

4. MEDIA AND CULTURE, RACE AND RESISTANCE

PRESIDING: Julian Bond, University of Virginia

"Hip Like Me: Racial Cross-Dressing Before the Advent of Elvis"

David L. Chapell, University of Arkansas

"WENN Push Came to Shove: Black-Oriented Radio and the Black Freedom Struggle in Birmingham, Alabama"

Brian Ward, University of Newcastle-upon-Tyne

COMMENTS: Adam Green, Northwestern University

Julian Bond

A complimentary shuttle will run between the Sheraton Birmingham Hotel and Five Points South. For additional details see page 25.

Thursday, November 12: 9:30–11:30 A.M.

G

5. CAPITALISTS ALL: ECONOMIC DEVELOPMENT AND SOUTHERN DISTINCTIVENESS, 1700–1820

PRESIDING: Joyce E. Chaplin, Vanderbilt University

"Irons in the Fire: The Business Enterprise of Virginia's Colonial Planters"

Laura Croghan Kamoie, College of William and Mary

"An 'Establishment Productive of Incalculable Benefits': Banks and Economic Development in Post Revolutionary Northern Virginia"

A. Glenn Crothers, Indiana University Southeast

"The Lords of Liberalism: South Carolina's Democratic Political Economy, 1783–1800"

Stan Deaton, University of Florida

COMMENTS: Peter A. Coclanis, University of North Carolina,
Chapel Hill

Thursday, November 12: 9:30–11:30 A.M.

I

6. THE MULTIPLE MEANINGS OF 1968 IN GERMANY, ITALY, AND FRANCE

PRESIDING: David L. Longfellow, Baylor University

"The Distorted Memories of Fascism: The Role of the Past in the Student Uprisings of 1968"

Stuart J. Hilwig, The Ohio State University

"The Legacy of the French May"

Michael Seidman, University of North Carolina,
Wilmington

"The Legacy of 1968 in German Popular Culture"

Elizabeth L. B. Peifer, Southwestern University

COMMENTS: John Spencer Hill, Immaculata College
David L. Longfellow

Thursday, November 12: 9:30–11:30 A.M.

J

7. NEW CONTEXTS FOR COLONIAL FLORIDA: THE COAST, THE CARIBBEAN, AND THE EMPIRE

PRESIDING: Daniel L. Schafer, University of North Florida

“Escape of the Nickaleers: Castaways, Indians, and Soldiers in Jonathan Dickinson’s Journal (1699)”

Amy Turner Bushnell, College of Charleston

“Interracial Piracy and Corsairing in Florida and the Greater Caribbean from the Sixteenth through the Eighteenth Centuries”

Jane G. Landers, Vanderbilt University

“Magic Kingdom: Imagination, Speculation, and Empire in British East Florida, 1763–1773”

Robert A. Olwell, University of Texas, Austin

COMMENTS: Jane E. Dysart, University of West Florida

Thursday, November 12: 9:30–11:30 A.M.

K

8. SOUTHERN PUNISHMENT AND PRISONS

PRESIDING: Judith Kelleher Schafer, Tulane University

“The Practice of Retaliation in Civil War Prisons”

Charles W. Sanders, Jr., Kansas State University

“‘An Entirely New Institution’: Race, Reconstruction and the Founding of the South Carolina Penitentiary”

Henry Kamerling, University of Illinois,
Urbana-Champaign

“Escape to Prison: The Struggle to Abolish the Georgia Chain Gang, 1932–1944”

Robert Perkinson, Yale University

COMMENTS: Matthew J. Mancini, Southwest Missouri State University

Thursday, November 12: 9:30–11:30 A.M.

L

9. ALABAMA COAL MINERS: A HISTORICAL APPRAISAL

PRESIDING: Colin J. Davis, University of Alabama, Birmingham
Edwin L. Brown, University of Alabama, Birmingham

"Interracial Unionism in the Era of Company Control, 1908–1921"
Brian Kelly, Brandeis University

"Rising from the Ashes: Alabama Miners and their Unions, 1921–1941"
Peter Alexander, University of Oxford

"The Alabama Coal Strike, 1977–1978"
Robert H. Woodrum, Georgia State University

COMMENTS: John Stewart, United Mineworkers of America,
District 20
Earl Brown, United Mineworkers of America, District 20

Thursday, November 12: 9:30–11:30 A.M.

M

10. THE TUSKEGEE SYPHILIS EXPERIMENT: A ROUNDTABLE

PRESIDING: James H. Jones, University of Houston

PANELISTS: Peter Buxtun, U. S. Public Health Service
Fred Gray, Gray, Langford, Sapp, Mc Gowan, Gray, and Nathanson
Susan Reverby, Wellesley College
Herman Shaw, Plaintiff, Pollard v. U. S.

COMMENTS: The Audience

Thursday, November 12: 11:30 A.M.

Medical Forum A

11. PHI ALPHA THETA LUNCHEON

PRESIDING: David T. Morgan, University of Montevallo

"The Dilemma and Direction in the Study of American Foreign Policy"
John M. Belohlavek, University of South Florida

Thursday, November 12: 11:45 A.M.—1:45 P.M.

D

12. WORKSHOP I—PRESENTING GENOCIDE: TEACHING THE HOLOCAUST AT AMERICAN UNIVERSITIES

PRESIDING: Lorry M. Fenner, National War College

“Interest, Imagination, and Introspection: Teaching the Holocaust in Modern German History Courses”

Katherine B. Aaslestad, West Virginia University

“Religion, Memory, and History: Holocaust Education at the Christian Denominationally-Affiliated University”

David T. Murphy, Anderson University

“Reflections on the Holocaust from Nebraska”

Alan E. Steinweis, University of Nebraska, Lincoln

Thursday, November 12: 1:00 P.M.

G

13. SOUTHERN HISTORICAL ASSOCIATION BUSINESS MEETING

PRESIDING: Carol K. Bleser, Clemson University

Thursday, November 12: 2:30—4:30 P.M.

D

14. THE MOVEMENT’S MAGNA CARTA: A NEW LOOK AT MARTIN LUTHER KING’S *LETTER FROM BIRMINGHAM JAIL

PRESIDING: E. Culpepper Clark, University of Alabama

“Eyes on the Press: The Media, the Ministers, and the Letter from Birmingham Jail”

S. Jonathan Bass, Samford University

COMMENTS: Rev. John Porter, Birmingham, Alabama

Stephen W. Grafman, Potomac, MD

Rev. Fred L. Shuttlesworth, Cincinnati, OH

This session was made possible by a grant from the Beeson School for Divinity at Samford University.

Thursday, November 12: 2:30–4:30 P.M.

E

15. INDIAN-WHITE RELATIONS IN THE EARLY NATIONAL SOUTH

PRESIDING: John Mack Faragher, Yale University

"Land, Republicanism, and Indians: The Indian Policies of the Georgia Elite, 1780–1825"

David A. Nichols, University of Kentucky

"Florida Society and the Second Seminole War, 1835–1843"

John Ellis, University of West Alabama

"Race and the 'Civilized Tribe'"

Andrew Denson, Indiana University

COMMENTS: Mary Elizabeth Young, University of Rochester

Thursday, November 12: 2:30–4:30 P.M.

F

16. NEW PERSPECTIVES ON HONOR, VIOLENCE, AND THE SOUTH

PRESIDING: Altina Waller, University of Connecticut

"'The Coffee-House World Manifest their Esteem by Laughing': Honor, Violence and Public Opinion in Eighteenth-Century Virginia"

Bruce C. Baird, University of Alabama, Huntsville

"The Role of Honor in Southern and Northern Violence"

Randolph A. Roth, The Ohio State University

COMMENTS: Kenneth S. Greenberg, Suffolk University

Altina Waller

Thursday, November 12: 2:30—4:30 P.M.

G

17. 1898 AND BEFORE: THE BUILD-UP TO WAR IN SPAIN, IN TAMPA, AND IN THE PUBLIC EYE

PRESIDING: John Offner, Shippensburg University

"The Seductions of Public Opinion: The Cuban War and 'The Women of America'"

Patrick Wilkinson, Duke University

"The Home Front War: Tampa, Florida and the Cuban War for Independence"

Gary Mormino, University of South Florida

"Fracuelo versus Edison: Spanish Reflections on Science, Technology, and the Spanish-American War"

John Tone, Georgia Institute of Technology

COMMENTS: John Offner

Thursday, November 12: 2:30—4:30 P.M.

I

18. EXPERIENCING THE FIRST WORLD WAR: CHANGING INTERPRETATIONS OF HEROISM AND PATRIOTISM

PRESIDING: Cynthia S. Bisson, Vanderbilt University

"Transformation and Transcendence: Women as Heroes in French World War I Fiction"

Nancy Sloan Goldberg, Middle Tennessee State University

"'We are the Dead': The Corporals of Souain and French Memories of the Great War"

Kristiane Pritchard, The Ohio State University

"Soldier and Pacifist: Siegfried Sasson's War Protest"

Carole Shelton, Murfreesboro, Tennessee

"Veteran, Pacifist, Professor: E. J. Gumbel and the University of Heidelberg, 1924—1932"

Rosanna M. Gatens, Belmont University

COMMENTS: Cynthia S. Bisson

Thursday, November 12: 2:30—4:30 P.M.

J

19. GENDER, CLASS, AND THE STATE IN THE AGE OF EMANCIPATION

PRESIDING: Paul A. Cimbala, Fordham University

"Because they are Women: Gender and the Freedmen's Bureau's War on Dependency"

Mary J. Farmer, Bowling Green State University

"A Full-fledged Government of Men: Freedmen's Bureau Labor Policy in South Carolina, 1865—1868"

James D. Schmidt, Northern Illinois University

"Treat Her Like a Lady: Judicial Paternalism and the Justification for Assaults Against Black Women, 1865—1910"

Uche Egemonye, Emory University

COMMENTS: Richard Paul Fuke, Wilfrid Laurier University

Thursday, November 12: 2:30—4:30 P.M.

K

20. RACE, CLASS, AND VIGILANTISM IN THE 1930S AND 1940S SOUTH

PRESIDING: Shawn Lay, Coker College

"Race, Class, and Klan-Style Violence in Depression-Era Alabama"

Glen Feldman, University of Alabama, Birmingham

"Race and Class and the Lynching of Willie Earle: Greenville, South Carolina, 1947"

Kari A. Frederickson, University of Central Florida

"Outlaw Work Done by Outlaws: Extralegal Violence and Labor Control in the Turpentine Industry"

Michael David Tegeder, University of Florida

COMMENTS: Glenn S. Jeansonne, University of Wisconsin, Milwaukee

Thursday, November 12: 2:30—4:30 P.M.

L

21. FREE LABOR, WAGE LABOR, AND SLAVE LABOR: THE ORIGINS OF THE CIVIL WAR

PRESIDING: Stephanie McCurry, University of California, San Diego
"Slavery, Capitalism, and American Politics in the Antebellum Republic: Towards a Bourgeois Revolution"

John Ashworth, University of Hull

COMMENTS: Elizabeth Fox-Genovese, Emory University
James Oakes, Graduate Center of the City University of New York
Stephanie McCurry

Thursday, November 12: 2:30—4:30 P.M.

M

22. CIVIL LIBERTIES IN THE CONFEDERACY

PRESIDING: Phillip Shaw Paludan, University of Kansas

"Southern Rights: The Problem of Civil Liberties in the Confederacy"
Mark E. Neely, St. Louis University

COMMENTS: Phillip Shaw Paludan
Richard M. McCaslin, High Point University
Kenneth H. Williams, The Papers of Jefferson Davis

Thursday, November 12: 8:30 P.M.

M

23. ANNUAL PRESIDENTIAL ADDRESS OF THE ASSOCIATION

PRESIDING: Paul K. Conkin, Vanderbilt University

"'I Gave the Best and All My Life to A Girdled Tree': The Marriage of Varina Howell and Jefferson Davis"

Carol K. Bleser, Clemson University

RECEPTION:

Following the Presidential Address, Clemson University invites the members and guests of the Southern Historical Association to a champagne reception in recognition of the Presidency of Carol K. Bleser. "Three on a String with Bobby Horton," which provided the music for Ken Burn's The Civil War, will play at the reception.

Friday, November 13: 9:30–11:30 A.M.

D

24. JOHN M. BARRY'S RISING TIDE: THE GREAT MISSISSIPPI FLOOD OF 1927

PRESIDING: Neil R. McMillen, University of Southern Mississippi

PANELISTS: Nan E. Woodruff, Pennsylvania State University
Martin Reuss, Senior Historian, U.S. Army Corps of Engineers
John C. Willis, University of the South

COMMENTS: John M. Barry

Friday, November 13: 9:30–11:30 A.M.

E

25. THE ENVIRONMENT AND REGIONAL DEVELOPMENT IN THE EARLY SOUTH

PRESIDING: Mart A. Stewart, Western Washington University

"Fighting 'a Tendency Which Grown-Ups Refer to as Individualism':
Republican and Capitalist Landscapes in Antebellum Virginia"
Lynn A. Nelson, College of William and Mary

"Frolics in the Forest Home: The Natural World of the Kentuckians"
Craig Thompson Friend, Georgetown College

"Between Field and Forest: The Ecology of the Slaves in the Lower Mississippi Valley"
Christopher Morris, University of Texas, Arlington

COMMENTS: Mart A. Stewart

Friday, November 13: 9:30–11:30 A.M.

F

26. THE CIVIL RIGHTS MOVEMENT: A STATE-BY-STATE PERSPECTIVE

PRESIDING: Gerald L. Smith, University of Kentucky

"Alabama"
J. Mills Thornton, III, University of Michigan

"Georgia"
Stephen Tuck, Cambridge University

"Louisiana"
Adam Fairclough, University of East Anglia

COMMENTS: Marcia G. Synnott, University of South Carolina

Friday, November 13: 9:30–11:30 A.M.

G

27. LAW AND THE FAMILY IN LATE MEDIEVAL AND EARLY MODERN EUROPE

PRESIDING: Donna J. Bohanan, Auburn University

“Not One Flesh: Husbands and Wives in the Medieval English Courts of Common Law”

Arlene Sindelar, University of Central Arkansas

“Civil Actions: Litigating Urban Life in Early Modern France”

Julie Hardwick, Texas Christian University

“Domestic Violence and the Enlightenment: New Perspectives on Spousal Abuse in Eighteenth-Century Poland”

Christopher A. Blackburn, Northeast Louisiana University

COMMENTS: Mack P. Holt, George Mason University

Friday, November 13: 9:30–11:30 A.M.

I

28. DEFINING THE LIMITS OF ANTI-SEMITISM AND JEWISH IDENTITY IN TWENTIETH-CENTURY EUROPE

PRESIDING: George S. Williamson, University of Alabama

“An Unholy Trinity: Nationalism, Anti-Semitism and Homophobia in the Harden-Moltke Trial of 1907”

Richard Frankel, University of North Carolina,
Chapel Hill

“Between All Stools: The Persecution of Half-Jews in Hitler’s Germany”

James F. Tent, University of Alabama, Birmingham

“‘A Great Moral Victory’: Spanish Protection of Jews on the Eastern Front, 1941–1943”

Wayne Bowen, Ouachita Baptist University

COMMENTS: George S. Williamson

Friday, November 13: 9:30–11:30 A.M.

J

29. SOUTHERN POPULISM REVISITED: THE CULTURE AND POLITICS OF THE POPULIST MOVEMENT IN NORTH CAROLINA, TENNESSEE, AND TEXAS

PRESIDING: Rebecca Edwards, Vassar College

“‘Under the Mudsills of Hell’: The Roots of Populism in Obion County, Tennessee”

Connie Lester, University of Tennessee

“Plain Folk of the Old North State and Third Party Politics: A Socio-Cultural Analysis of the People’s Party in North Carolina, 1892–1900”

James M. Beeby, Bowling Green State University

“Dallas Workingmen, Organized Labor, and the People’s Party Campaign”

Alicia E. Rodriguez, University of California,
Santa Barbara

COMMENTS: Rebecca Edwards

Friday, November 13: 9:30–11:30 A.M.

K

30. ORGANIZED BLACK PROTEST AND THE POLITICS OF RACIAL SEPARATISM IN TEXAS

PRESIDING: Jacquelyn Dowd Hall, University of North Carolina,
Chapel Hill

“The Black Working and Middle Classes and the Politics of Racial Separatism Along the Upper Texas Gulf Coast, 1883–1945”

Ernest Obadele-Starks, Texas A&M University

“An Ideological Shootout in Texas: Separate Equality Versus Racial Integration, 1940–1950”

Amilcar Shabazz, University of Alabama

COMMENTS: Darlene Clark Hine, Michigan State University
William Harris, Alabama State University

Friday, November 13: 9:30–11:30 A.M.

L

31. CHILDREN, FAMILIES, AND THE CIVIL WAR

PRESIDING: Lynda L. Crist, The Papers of Jefferson Davis

"Tad and Willie Go to War: Northern Children and the Fight for the Union"

James Marten, Marquette University

"Son and Soldier: The Familial Relationship of John Rodgers Meigs, 1859–1864"

Mary A. Giunta, National Historical Publications and Records Commission

"Divided Families and the Politics of Civil War Loyalty"

Amy Murrell, University of Virginia

COMMENTS: Peter W. Bardaglio, Goucher College

Virginia J. Laas, Southwest Missouri State University

Friday, November 13: 9:30–11:30 A.M.

M

32. LAWYERS AND HISTORIANS CONFRONT CAPITAL PUNISHMENT IN THE SOUTH: A ROUNDTABLE
DISCUSSION

PRESIDING: William S. McFeely, University of Georgia

PANELISTS: Bryan A. Stevenson, Equal Justice Initiative,
Montgomery, Alabama

Stephen B. Bright, Southern Center for Human Rights,
Atlanta, Georgia

David Oshinsky, Rutgers University, New Brunswick

George C. Wright, University of Texas, Arlington

COMMENTS: The Audience

Friday, November 13: 11:45 A.M.–1:45 P.M.

D

33. WORKSHOP II—HISTORIANS, PUBLIC POLICY, AND UNIVERSITY OUTREACH

PRESIDING: James C. Cobb, University of Georgia

PANELISTS: Dan T. Carter, Emory University

J. Wayne Flynt, Auburn University

Walter B. Edgar, University of South Carolina

COMMENTS: The Audience

Friday, November 13: 12 Noon

O

34. EUROPEAN HISTORY SECTION LUNCHEON

PRESIDING: John E. Dreifort, Wichita State University

"Roosevelt and Churchill: Conflicting Postwar Visions"

Gerhard L. Weinburg, University of North Carolina,
Chapel Hill

Friday, November 13: 2:30—4:30 P.M.

D

35. GENTILITY IN THE OLD SOUTH

PRESIDING: Michael O'Brien, Miami University

"The Fashionable Tour: Gentility, Sociability, and Nationalism in the Planter Class"

Daniel P. Kilbride, John Carroll University

"Competitive Gentility: The Southern Elite at the Virginia Springs, 1790—1860"

Charlene M. Boyer Lewis, Widener University

COMMENTS: Cynthia A. Kierner, University of North Carolina,
Charlotte

Michael O'Brien

Friday, November 13: 2:30—4:30 P.M.

E

36. THE WAR WITHIN: MEN, WOMEN, AND THE AMERICAN CIVIL WAR

PRESIDING: James I. Robertson, Virginia Tech University

"Julia Gardiner Tyler and the Problem of Southern Secession"

Theodore DeLaney, Washington and Lee University

"'When We Secede': Men and Women in Civil War Northern Virginia"

Mark Mangus, The Ohio State University

"'What is to Become of us?': Slaveholding Widows in the Civil War"

Kirsten E. Wood, University of Pennsylvania

COMMENTS: George C. Rable, University of Alabama

Friday, November 13: 2:30—4:30 P.M.

F

37. NINETEENTH-CENTURY SOUTHERN COMMUNITIES IN HISTORY AND LITERATURE

PRESIDING: Daniel E. Sutherland, University of Arkansas

"Mary Chesnut's Camden, South Carolina"

Thomas J. Brown, University of South Carolina

"William Faulkner's Lafayette County, Mississippi"

Don H. Doyle, Vanderbilt University

"John Washington's Fredricksburg, Virginia"

Crandall A. Shifflett, Virginia Tech University

COMMENTS: Brenda E. Stevenson, University of California,
Los Angeles

Friday, November 13: 2:30—4:30 P.M.

G

38. BRAZILIAN ELITES FACE THE INTERIOR: NATION-NESS AND ELITE DEFINITIONS OF THE HINTERLAND

PRESIDING: Peter M. Beattie, Michigan State University

"'Are the Good Guys Always Bad?': A Re-examination of the Career of General Candido Mariano da Silva Rondon"

Todd A. Diacon, University of Tennessee

"'Triste Tropique': or 'Land of Tomorrow': Tropicalism, Development, and the Search for Brazilian Modernity in the Amazon"

Joel Wolfe, Rice University

COMMENTS: Marshall C. Eakin, Vanderbilt University
Peter M. Beattie

Friday, November 13: 2:30–4:30 P.M.

I

39. RESPONSES TO REVOLUTION IN FRANCE: AMBITIOUS MEN AND UNRULY WOMEN

PRESIDING: Ronald James Caldwell, Jacksonville State University

"A Second Chance: Talleyrand's Approach to Power During the Directory"

Doina Pasca Harsanyi, University of North Carolina,
Chapel Hill

"The Politics of Pardon: Imperial Clemency and the Rehabilitation of the Republican Opposition During France's Second Empire, 1851–1859"

Stacey Renee Davis, Yale University

"'No More Bosses, No More Rich Men, No More Priests': Working-Class Women, Anti Clericalism, and Popular Revolution During the Paris Commune of 1871"

Carolyn J. Eichner, University of South Florida

COMMENTS: Ronald James Caldwell

Friday, November 13: 2:30–4:30 P.M.

J

40. THE RURAL SOUTH AND GENDERED WORK: HOME DEMONSTRATION AGENTS, HOME ECONOMISTS, AND NURSES, 1911–1945

PRESIDING: Martha H. Swain, Mississippi State University

"Leadership Among Rural Women: The Arkansas Extension Service, Women's Division, 1911–1945"

D. Clayton Brown, Texas Christian University

"Home Economists and Nurses in Health Delivery: The Farm Security Adminstration, 1933–1946"

Brenda J. Taylor, Texas Wesleyan University

COMMENTS: Kenneth E. Hendrickson, Midwestern State University
Martha H. Swain

Friday, November 13: 2:30–4:30 P.M.

K

41. REPRESSING AND MYTHOLOGIZING: THE MAKING OF (WEST) GERMAN NATIONAL IDENTITY

PRESIDING: Russell W. Lemmons, Jacksonville State University

“The Use and Abuse of Doctor-Patient Privilege in German Medicine after 1945 in Light of Forced Sterilization and ‘Euthanasia’”

Michael R. Hayse, Richard Stockton College of New Jersey

“‘Morgen geht uns noch besser’: Economic Propaganda and Political Power in West Germany, 1949–1957”

Mark Spicka, The Ohio State University

“Words, Deeds, and the Right Memories: Chancellors of the Federal Republic of Germany and the Legacy of the Holocaust”

Daniel E. Rogers, University of South Alabama

“The German Response to Daniel Goldhagen’s Hitler’s Willing Executioners”

Walter F. Renn, Middle Tennessee State University

COMMENTS: Russell W. Lemmons

Friday, November 13: 2:30–4:30 P.M.

L

42. CREATING COMMUNITY AND CULTURE AMONG PEOPLE OF AFRICAN DESCENT

PRESIDING: T. Stephen Whitman, Mount St. Mary’s College

“The Georgia Slave Trade and the Development of Culture and Community Among Peoples of African Descent, 1750–1810”

Tiwanna Simpson, The Ohio State University

“‘This Mischief is Becoming Intolerable’: Freedom and Slavery in Rural Maryland, 1783–1824”

Jennifer Hull Dorsey, Georgetown University

COMMENTS: Jon F. Sensbach, University of Southern Mississippi
Peter Wood, Duke University

Friday, November 13 2:30–4:30 P.M.

M

43. RECONSTRUCTION: THE STATE OF THE FIELD A DECADE AFTER ERIC FONER'S *RECONSTRUCTION:
AMERICA'S UNFINISHED REVOLUTION, 1863–1877

PRESIDING: Michael Les Benedict, Ohio State University

PANELISTS: Iver Bernstein, Washington University
Michael Perman, University of Illinois, Chicago
Leslie S. Rowland, University of Maryland, College Park
Julie Saville, University of Chicago

COMMENTS: Eric Foner, Columbia University

Saturday, November 14: 9:00–11:00 A.M.

D

44. NEW PERSPECTIVES ON DISEASE AND DEATH IN THE NINETEENTH CENTURY

PRESIDING: Drew Gilpin Faust, University of Pennsylvania

"The Afflicted Body and the Subjectivity of Physicians' 'Experience,' 1800–1880"

Steven M. Stowe, Indiana University

"The Southern Way of Death: The Meaning of Death in Antebellum
White Evangelical Culture"

Randy J. Sparks, College of Charleston

"The American Civil War and the Culture(s) of Death"

Mark Shantz, Hendrix College

COMMENTS: Charles Reagan Wilson, University of Mississippi

Saturday, November 14: 9:00–11:00 A.M.

E

45. LET THE REDEEMED SAY SO: RELIGION, POLITICS, AND SOCIETY IN THE NEW SOUTH

PRESIDING: Robert C. McMath, Georgia Institute of Technology

"Why 'Redemption'? Religion and the End of Reconstruction, 1870–1877"

Daniel W. Stowell, The Lincoln Legal Papers

"Strike and Be Saved: Religion and the 1886 Strike in Augusta, Georgia"

Julia Walsh, University of Illinois, Urbana-Champaign

"We are not the Free Men our Fathers Were: Religion and the Populist Party in North Carolina"

Joseph W. Creech, University of Notre Dame

COMMENTS: Paul Harvey, University of Colorado, Colorado Springs

Saturday, November 14: 9:00–11:00 A.M.

F

46. TWO HISTORIANS' VISION OF AN IDEAL SOUTH:
E. MERTON COULTER AND CHARLES WILTSE

PRESIDING: Kenneth R. Stevens, Texas Christian University

"History in Service to the South: E. Merton Coulter and the Political Culture of Southern Historiography"

Fred Arthur Bailey, Abilene Christian University

"Charles Wiltse and the Historian's Vanitas"

Michael J. Birkner, Gettysburg College

COMMENTS: John David Smith, North Carolina State University

John C. Inscoe, University of Georgia

Saturday, November 14: 9:00–11:00 A.M.

G

47. MASONRY IN LATIN AMERICA: RESEARCH QUESTIONS AND ARCHIVAL SOURCES

PRESIDING: Angela T. Thompson, East Carolina University

"'Backroom Heroes': Masonry and Provincial Nineteenth-Century Mexico--Guanajuato, 1822–1835"

Bryan E. Vizzini, University of North Carolina, Chapel
Hill

"The Historiography of Latin American Masonry: A Map for Researchers"

Paul Rich, University of the Americas, Puebla, Mexico

Guillermo de los Reyes, University of the Americas,
Puebla, Mexico

COMMENTS: Pedro Santoni, California State University,

San Bernardino

Angela T. Thompson

Saturday, November 14: 9:00–11:00 A.M.

I

48. CULTURAL STUDIES APPROACHES TO SCIENCE AND PHILOSOPHY ACROSS THE CENTURIES

PRESIDING: Maarten Ultee, University of Alabama

"Of Demons and Aliens: The Cardano Apparition of 1491 as Interpreted by Cyrano de Bergerac and the Idea of the Extraterrestrial in Early Modern Europe"

John Adams, Alabama A&M University

"Biological Rhetoric in Herder's Ideen"

Miriam Claude Meijer, Washington, D.C.

"Grounding Space: Heidegger and Cultural Geography"

Troy R. E. Paddock, University of Hartford

COMMENTS: David A. Meier, Dickinson State University
Maarten Ultee

Saturday, November 14: 9:00–11:00 A.M.

J

49. CARRYING THE TORCH: AFRICAN AMERICAN AND WHITE WOMEN ENGAGE PROGRESSIVE AND NEW DEAL
REFORMS, 1910–1945

PRESIDING: Elna C. Green, Florida State University

"'None of These Girls Knew What a Chance Was': The Georgia Training School for Girls and Georgia Social Workers, 1914–1930"

Lee S. Polansky, Zero Population Growth

"Torches of Light: African American and White Women Teachers in the Georgia Upcountry, 1910–1945"

Anna Short Chirhart, University of Maryland,
College Park

"Southern Liberalism, For Whites Only?: Charlotte Hawkins Brown, Gordon Blaine Hancock, and the Problem of the Middle Path"

Caroline C. Cortina, Brown University

COMMENTS: William A. Link, University of North Carolina,
Greensboro

Saturday, November 14: 9:00–11:00 A.M.

K

50. ENEMIES AMONG US: GERMAN ALIENS IN THE AMERICAS DURING THE SECOND WORLD WAR

PRESIDING: Amos E. Simpson, Southwestern Louisiana University

"Prisoners of Circumstance: German Alien Internees in the U.S. during World War II"

Arnold P. Krammer, Texas A&M University

"Warden of the Hemisphere: Expanding the U.S. Enemy Alien Program to Latin America"

Max Paul Friedman, University of California, Berkeley

COMMENTS: Robert D. Billinger, Jr., Wingate College

John A. Heitmann, University of Dayton

Saturday, November 14: 9:00–11:00 A.M.

L

51. SINGLE BLESSEDNESS: WOMEN'S PIETY AND PHILANTHROPY IN THE OLD SOUTH

PRESIDING: Anne Firor Scott, Duke University

"Christian Conversion, Piety, and Power for a Southern Jewish Spinster"

Emily Bingham, University of North Carolina,
Chapel Hill

"Seeking an 'extensive sphere of usefulness': Women's Philanthropy in Antebellum Savannah and Charleston"

Christine Jacobson Carter, Emory University

"Resisting the Altar: Conversion and Courtship in the Antebellum South"

Anya Jabour, University of Montana

COMMENTS: Catherine Clinton, Wofford College

Saturday, November 14: 9:00–11:00 A.M.

M

52. INTERPRETING BIRMINGHAM'S CIVIL RIGHTS STRUGGLE

PRESIDING: Odessa Woolfolk, Birmingham Civil Rights Institute

"The Politics of Urban Space: Battling Jim Crow in Birmingham"

Louise Passey Maxwell, New York University

"The Won Cause: Memorializing the Movement through the Birmingham Civil Rights Institute"

Glenn T. Eskew, Georgia State University

COMMENTS: Jack E. Davis, University of Alabama, Birmingham

Howell Raines, The New York Times

Saturday, November 14: 9:00–11:00 A.M.

O

53. SOUTHERN STUDIES ABROAD: A ROUNDTABLE

PRESIDING: Rick Halpern, University of London

PANELISTS: Susanna Delfino, University of Genoa
Alessandra Lorini, University of Florence
Timothy Lockley, University of Warwick

Saturday, November 14: 2:00–4:00 P.M.

Civil Rights Institute

54. THE CIVIL RIGHTS MOVEMENT AND THE SOUTH: A JOURNALIST'S PERSPECTIVE

PRESIDING: W. Ann Reynolds, President
University of Alabama, Birmingham

"A Meditation on Living the Middle of History"
Howell Raines, The New York Times

RESPONSE: Honorable Richard Arrington, Mayor
Birmingham, Alabama

The City of Birmingham will provide buses to transport attendees to the Civil Rights Institute.
--

OTHER CONCURRENT SESSIONS

Thursday, November 12: 4:45 P.M.

F

CS 1. PHI ALPHA THETA

PRESIDING: J. Howell Smith, Wake Forest University

"William Louis Poteat and Science in the Late Nineteenth-Century North Carolina"

Randal Hall, Rice University

"Henry Grady Goes to Harlem: The Harlem Renaissance as New South Critique"

Mark A. Huddle, University of Georgia

"A Question of Justice: Reubin Askew, the 1972 Florida Busing Straw Vote, and the Burden of the New South"

Gordon E. Harvey, Auburn University

COMMENTS: Jonathan M. Atkins, Berry College
Robert T. McKenzie, University of Washington

Thursday, November 12: 4:45 P.M.

E

CS 2. PHI ALPHA THETA LATIN AMERICAN
Land, Water, and Blood in Mexico and the Borderlands

CHAIR: Kimberly S. Hanger, University of Tulsa

“‘The People Are Land Mad’: The Kemper Brothers and Changing
Anglo-Spanish Relations in Spanish West Florida”
Drew McMichael, Vanderbilt University

“Saline Solutions: Arizona Water Politics, Mexican-American Relations in the Wellton-Mohawk Valley”
Evan Ward, University of Georgia

“The Attempted Assassination of Porfiro Diaz”
James Garza, Texas Christian University

COMMENTS: Maria Francois, Auburn University
Jürgen Buchenau, University of Southern Mississippi

Thursday, November 12: 5:15 P.M.

Medical Forum A

CS 3. SOCIETY OF CIVIL WAR HISTORIANS
Redrawing the Battle Lines: New Strategies and Questions in Civil War History

PRESIDING: T. Michael Parrish, LBJ Library, Austin, Texas

CHAIR: John C. Inscoe, University of Georgia

“Battles and Leaders: Another Look”
Lesley J. Gordon, University of Akron

“New Fronts on the Home Front”
James Marten, Marquette University

“Rebel Spitfires, Invented Mothers, and ‘Not Knowing Anything about Birthing Babies’: Reconsideration of Women within the Confederacy”
Catherine Clinton, Wofford College

Friday, November 13: 4:30 P.M.

N

CS 4. SOUTHERN ASSOCIATION FOR WOMEN HISTORIANS

PRESIDING: Catherine Clinton, Wofford College

“Writing A Way Home: History, Memory, and the Refashioning of Southern Identity”
Jacquelyn Dowd Hall, University of North Carolina,
Chapel Hill

Friday, November 13: 4:45 P.M.

E

CS 5. PHI ALPHA THETA LATIN AMERICAN

Race, Resistance, Respectability, and Ritual in Mexico and the Caribbean

PRESIDING: Thomas M. Leonard, University of North Florida

"Cosmic Diaz? Justo Sierra, Jose Vacconcelos and Los Raices de La Raza Coemica"

Ryan Ruckel, University of Southern Mississippi

"In the Shadow of Slavery: 'Progress,' 'Respectability,' and the 1888 Jubilee of Emancipation in Grenada"

Charles A. Israel, Rice University

"Rum and Resistance: Drinking and African Cultural Continuity in British West Indian Slave Societies"

Frederick H. Smith, University of Florida

COMMENTS: Jane G. Landers, Vanderbilt University

Lance R. Grahn, Marquette University

Friday, November 13: 4:45 P.M.

F

CS 6. SOUTHERN AMERICAN STUDIES ASSOCIATION

The Cradle Rocks: The Civil Rights Movement in Sixties Alabama

PRESIDING: Richard B. Megraw, University of Alabama

"'Negroes do not have better friends...than Baptists': The Southern Baptist Convention's Response to Integration"

Lee Anne Hewett, University of Alabama

"Guiding Force: Joseph Mallasham and the Tuscaloosa Citizen's Action Committee Police"

Eric Lizée, University of Alabama

"Two Colonies, Two Worlds: Race Relations in Cullman County, Alabama During the 1960s"

Lydia Smith, University of Alabama

"The March of a Lifetime: The Civil Rights Movement in Greensboro Since 1964"

Eliza Cobb, University of Alabama

COMMENTS: Amilcar Shabazz, University of Alabama

SOUTHERN CONFERENCE ON BRITISH STUDIES
and
CAROLINAS SYMPOSIUM ON BRITISH STUDIES
Sessions

Thursday, November 12: 9:30–11:30 A.M. Medical Forum C

SCBS/CSBS 1. POLITICS, IDEOLOGY, AND THE PRESS IN HANOVERIAN ENGLAND

PRESIDING: Charles Perry, University of the South

"The Politics of Religion and Religion in Politics: Archbishop Thomas Secker and the Church of England's Political Role in the Eighteenth Century"

Robert G. Ingram, University of Virginia

"Henry Brougham and the Westmorland Election of 1818"

William Anthony Hay, University of Virginia

"Tory Journalism and the Disciplinary Ethos: Robert Southey and the Quarterly Review, 1808–1832"

Philip Harling, University of Kentucky

COMMENTS: James J. Sack, University of Illinois, Chicago Circle

Thursday, November 12: 9:30–11:30 A.M. Medical Forum D

SCBS/CSBS 2. HISTORIANS AND THE BRITISH IN THE SECOND WORLD WAR

PRESIDING: John F. Beeler, University of Alabama

"Churchill, Harris, and the Historians: The Historiography of the Allied Strategic Bombing Offensive Against Germany"

Ronald D. Cassell, University of North Carolina,
Greensboro

"'The rats will get at me': Historians and Field Marshal Bernard Montgomery"

Colin F. Baxter, East Tennessee State University

"Historians and the Dieppe Raid of August 1942: Churchill, Montgomery, Mountbatten, and the Canadians"

Eugene L. Rasor, Emory & Henry College

COMMENTS: Michael Moore, Appalachian State University

Thursday, November 12: 9:30–11:30 A.M. Medical Forum E

SCBS/CSBS 3. BRITAIN AND EGYPT: TAKE IT OR LEAVE IT

PRESIDING: Raymond Mensing, Valdosta State University

“Spoils of War? The Role of Antiquities during the French Evacuation of Egypt (1801)”

Melanie Byrd, Valdosta State University

“‘A Murderous Calamity’: The Twin British Defeats at al-Rashid (1807)”

John Dunn, Valdosta State University

“Anthony Eden’s Orientalism: Oxonian Education and Foreign Policy Interpretations during the Suez Crisis, 1956”

Lindsay F. Braun, Michigan State/Michigan Academy

COMMENTS: Sara Sohmer, Texas Christian University

Thursday, November 12: 9:30–11:30 A.M. Medical Forum F

SCBS/CSBS 4. ISSUES OF GENDER IN VICTORIAN LITERATURE

PRESIDING: Brenda Ayers, Middle Georgia College

“From Wives and Daughters to Middlemarch: A Study in Literary Influence”

Marilyn Kurata, University of Alabama, Birmingham

“‘A Woman’s Wile’: The Character of Vivien and the ‘Fallen Woman’ in Victorian Arthurian Literature”

Stephanie Barczewski, Clemson University

“Gendering Cultural Decadence: The Feminine and the Fin de Siecle”

Jorgette Mauzerall, Fort Valley State University

COMMENTS: Ellen Sprechman, Florida International University

Thursday, November 12: 2:30—4:30 P.M.

Medical Forum C

SCBS/CSBS 5. PRINT CULTURE AND POPULAR
PERCEPTIONS IN NINETEENTH-CENTURY
BRITAIN

PRESIDING: Carolyn Conley, University of Alabama, Birmingham

“Cobbett’s Rhetorical Rides: The Dialogue and Discourse of Patriotism”
Martin Conboy, Surrey Institute of Art and Design

“Gender as a Weapon: Josephine Butler, the Repeal Movement Against the Contagious Diseases Acts and the Press”
Lisa A. Kazmier, Rutgers University

“Victorian Ireland in Late Victorian Popular History”
Ann Marie H. Plunkett, Piedmont Virginia Community
College

COMMENTS: John Hutcheson, Dalton College

Thursday, November 12: 2:30—4:30 P.M.

Medical Forum D

SCBS/CSBS 6. THE POLITICS OF CLASS AND IDENTITY, 1880s—1920

PRESIDING: Harold L. Smith, University of Houston, Victoria

“Very Distasteful: From the Diaries of Constables Policing Strikes in Lancashire, 1880s—1910s”
Joanne Klein, Salem College

“Asquith and Democracy”
Cameron Hazlehurst, Institute of Advanced Studies,
Australian National University

“Curing Those Convalescent Blues: Healing, Clothing, and the Body of the British Soldier-Patient in the First World War”
Jeffrey S. Reznick, Emory University

COMMENTS: R. J. Q. Adams, Texas A&M University

Thursday, November 12: 2:30–4:30 P.M.

Medical Forum E

SCBS/CSBS 7. THE LATER STUARTS AND HANOVERIANS: FINE ARTS AND LITERATURE

PRESIDING: Vicki P. Strocher, Augusta State University

“Music in the Restoration, 1600–1663”

Joanna Neilson, Florida State University

“The Classical Designs of Louis Laguerre and Other French Artists in the ‘Vinegar Bible’ of John Baskett and the Influence of the French Classical Style on English Art of the Late Seventeenth and Early Eighteenth Centuries”

Joyce M. Davis, Valdosta State University

“Romantic Ecology and Teaching: Blake’s Songs of Innocence and of Experience”

John H. Jones, Jacksonville State University

COMMENTS: The Audience

Thursday, November 12: 2:30–4:30 P.M.

Medical Forum F

SCBS/CSBS 8. IMAGES OF THE COLD WAR

PRESIDING: Biff Faunce, Mary Washington University

“Nuclear Anxiety, Geopolitics, and the British Cold War Novel”

Tony E. Jackson, University of North Carolina,
Charlotte

“The Myth of the Angry Young Men: The Banality of English Literature and Popular Music, 1956–1962”

Neil Nehring, University of Texas, Austin

“The Hobbit Goes High-Tech, or from Frodo Baggins to James Bond: Domesticating the Bomb”

Meredith Veldman, Louisiana State University

“A Celluloid Cold War: Cold War Themes in the British Films, ‘The Lady Killers’ and ‘The Giant Behemoth’”

Neal McCrillis, North Carolina Methodist College

COMMENTS: The Audience

Friday, November 13: 9:30–11:30 A.M.

Medical Forum C

SCBS/CSBS 9. CAPITAL, LABOR, AND RACE IN AN IMPERIAL FRAME

PRESIDING: Susan R. Grayzel, University of Mississippi

“‘The Wonder of Our Age’: The Mining Empire of the Rand and the Birmingham District, 1886–1920”

Brad Paul, University of Massachusetts, Amherst

“Class, Race, and Citizenship: British Labor and South African Unrest, 1913–1914”

Patrick Cannon, Georgia State University

“Passages to India: Keir Hardie, Ramsay MacDonald, and the Edwardian Empire”

Ian Christopher Fletcher, Georgia State University

COMMENTS: Laura Tabili, University of Arizona

Friday, November 13: 9:30–11:30 A.M.

Medical Forum D

SCBS/CSBS 10. POLITICS AND GODLINESS: ISSUES DURING THE CIVIL WAR AND INTERREGNUM

PRESIDING: Daniel Hollis, Jacksonville State University

“‘Too Fatal Principles’: The Rise and Fall of Major General Thomas Harrison”

Joyce E. Sampson, Florida State University

“The British Constitution and the Instrument of Government, 1653”

Stanley D. M. Carpenter, Florida State University

“General Baptists and Arminianism during the Interregnum: A Reinterpretation”

Matthew Pinson, Florida State University

COMMENTS: William Spellman, University of North Carolina,
Asheville

Friday, November 13: 9:30–11:30 A.M.

Medical Forum E

SCBS/CSBS 11. ARCHITECTURAL HISTORY: DOMESTIC SPACE IN VICTORIAN AND EDWARDIAN
ENGLAND

PRESIDING: John Schnorrenberg, University of Alabama, Birmingham

"Making Catholic Space: The Role of the Private Chapel in English Domesticity, 1770–1850"

Victoria M. Young, University of Virginia

"Charmed Territory: Finding the Hidden Harmony in Late Victorian and Edwardian Interiors"

Jeff Hamilton, University of Delaware

"Gertrude Jekyll and the Cottage Garden: Modernity with a Vernacular Face"

Elizabeth Schafer, University of Virginia

"The Country House versus Bauhaus: Britain's Architectural Response to World War I"

Edmund D. Potter, Auburn University

COMMENTS: The Audience

Friday, November 13: 9:30–11:30 A.M.

Medical Forum F

SCBS/CSBS 12. NINETEENTH-CENTURY INTELLECTUAL THEMES

PRESIDING: Stephanie Barczewski, Clemson University

"British Philosophy and the Idea of Identity"

Gordon W. Lyon, Florida State University

"J. S. Mill's Conversion to Peasant Proprietorship"

Bruce Kinzer, University of North Carolina, Wilmington

"The Reception of Marginalism in Britain"

Jeffrey Lipkes, University of South Florida

COMMENTS: The Audience

Friday, November 13: 2:30–4:30 P.M.

Medical Forum C

SCBS/CSBS 13. BRITISH AND EXPATRIATE DETECTIVE FICTION--FROM THE EDWARDIAN ERA TO THE PRESENT

PRESIDING: Jerry Brookshire, Middle Tennessee State University

"Naturalism and Realism in Early British Private Investigator and Crime Fiction: Selected Works of Arthur Morrison (1863–1945)"

Anna R. Holloway, Fort Valley State University

"Expatriate in Transition: The Black Detective Novels of Chester Himes, 1957–1970"

Joyce O. Jenkins, Fort Valley State University

"Apocalyptic Pop: Judge Dredd and the British View of American Cultural Decay from the 1970s to the Present"

B. Keith Murphy, Fort Valley State University

COMMENTS: Ginger Frost, Samford University

Friday, November 13: 2:30–4:30 P.M.

Medical Forum D

SCBS/CSBS 14. TEXTS IN EARLY MODERN ENGLAND: A VARIETY OF VOICES

PRESIDING: Gary Taylor, University of Alabama

"Not Marble Nor the Gilded Monuments: John Stow's Survey of London
(1598) and the Ekphrastic Tradition"

Parks Lanier, Jr., Radford University

"The Absence of Female Autonomy in The Changeling's Patriarchal World"

Staci L. Stone, University of South Carolina

"Freedom and Constraint in Robert Herrick's Hesperides"

Stephen R. Slimp, University of West Alabama

COMMENTS: J. S. Mebane, University of Alabama, Huntsville

Friday, November 13: 2:30—4:30 P.M.

Medical Forum E

SCBS/CSBS 15. BRITISH OR NON-BRITISH: ETHNIC IDENTITY WITHIN THE BRITISH IMPERIAL FRAMEWORK

PRESIDING: W. Calvin Smith, University of South Carolina, Aiken

“Constructing Black Women’s Identity in Victorian England: Black
Women’s Views on Race, Gender, Class, Culture”

Lydia Lindsey, North Carolina Central University

“British Black Women’s History and Historiography: An Approach to Writing a Comprehensive Narrative Historical Account”

Carlton Wilson, North Carolina Central University

“The Sikh Wars and British National Identity”

Stephen Keck, College of Charleston

“Side by Side in Generous Rivalry: Highlanders, Sikhs and the Evolution of Martial Race Theory”

Heather E. G. Streets, Duke University

COMMENTS: The Audience

Friday, November 13: 2:30—4:30 P.M.

Medical Forum F

SCBS/CSBS 16. VICTORIAN VOICES: IDENTITY OF SELF AND
OF AN AGE

PRESIDING: J. E. Myers

“What’s Jane Eyre Doing on Sugar Fork Mountain? Passion and the Divided Self in Fair and Tender Ladies”

Tonya Wertz-Orebaugh, University of South Carolina

“‘A Speaking Likeness’: The Socioeconomic Voices of Bleak House’s Portraits”

Regina Oost, Wesleyan College, Macon

“Undoubted Queen: Victorian Literary Perceptions of Elizabeth I”

Clifton W. Potter, Jr., Lynchburg College

“Solidarity and Solitude in Conrad’s Lord Jim”

Phyllis Toy, University of Southern Indiana

COMMENTS: The Audience

Friday, November 13: 4:45 P.M.

Medical Forum C

SCBS 17. SOUTHERN CONFERENCE ON BRITISH
STUDIES BUSINESS MEETING

PRESIDING: Diane Willen, Georgia State University

Friday, November 13: 5:00 P.M.

Medical Forum C

CSBS 18. CAROLINAS SYMPOSIUM ON BRITISH
STUDIES BUSINESS MEETING

PRESIDING: Barbara Brandon Schnorrenberg, Birmingham, Alabama

Saturday, November 14: 9:00–11:00 A.M.

Medical Forum C

SCBS/CSBS 19. RESPONSES TO THE GLORIOUS REVOLUTION

PRESIDING: Richard Greaves, Florida State University

"Revolutionaries as Legalists: 1688–1689"

Richard Kay, University of Connecticut School of Law

"The Mutiny Acts in the Reign of William III: Meaning and Myth"

James Jay Carafano, U.S. Army Center of Military History

"Dilucidating The Dilucidator"

Elizabeth Lane Furdell, University of North Florida

COMMENTS: Daniel Szechi, Auburn University

Saturday, November 14: 9:00–11:00 A.M.

Medical Forum D

SCBS/CSBS 20. EMPIRE AND DEVOLUTION: CANADIAN AND SCOTTISH IDENTITY IN THE TWENTIETH CENTURY

PRESIDING: William S. Brockington, University of South Carolina,
Aiken

"Representation/Re-Presentation: Understanding Toronto's Place in the Empire in the Summer of 1914"

Ian Miller, Wilfred Laurier University

"Imperial Defense Policy and the Development of Canadian Sovereignty"

Eric Smylie, University of North Texas

"The Politics of History: Devolution and Democracy in Scotland"

Randall Shrock, Earlham College

Alice Almond Shrock, Earlham College

COMMENTS: Donal Lowry, Oxford Brookes University

Saturday, November 14: 9:00–11:00 A.M.

Medical Forum E

SCBS/CSBS 21. RELIGION AND POLITICS IN THE NINETEENTH CENTURY

PRESIDING: Denis Paz, University of North Texas

"Sir John Coxe Hippisley and Sudbury: The Dance of an MP and his Constituents"

Susan Sommers, St. Vincent College

"Nineteenth-Century English Catholicism and Social Reform"

Eric G. Tenbus, Florida State University

"Rick-burners, Radicals and the Reform Bill of 1832"

Eileen Groth Lyon, Florida State University

COMMENTS: Denis Paz

Saturday, November 14: 9:00–11:00 A.M.

Medical Forum F

SCBS/CSBS 22. INNOVATIONS IN HIGHER EDUCATION IN BRITAIN DURING THE NINETEENTH AND TWENTIETH CENTURIES

PRESIDING: John D. Fair, Georgia College & State University

"Between Two Worlds: The Dichotomy of Anne J. Clough"

Mary Gallant, University of Florida

"England's Civic Universities: A Case Study in English Progressivism"

Sarah V. Barnes, Hong Kong University

"Averting the Decline? Scottish Central Institutions and Technical Education"

Thomas G. Velek, Mississippi University for Women

COMMENTS: Gail Savage, St. Mary's College